

Unless you speak Russian, you're going to really be watching this movie.

This is hard, and not natural—so try to answer these questions as you watch.

1. Who is shooting this?
2. What sort of camera?
3. What sort of shots do they rely on?
4. Is there any footage not by the primary team? How can you tell?
5. What is the relationship of the film shooters to the people they are taping?
6. What neighborhoods in the city can you recognize?
7. What music are they using, and how?
8. Can you pick out any individual words?
9. What do you think the narration is saying?
